LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Hello Everyone!

At our first gathering in October 1982, we "planned" to publish a quarterly of at least 10 pages per issue. Would you believe that this issue completes 1482 pages of quarterlies in a six year period!!!! And, yours truly could not have done her part without the help of many fine people - all of you who have submitted such well written articles, the many members who sent queries, and those who have sent words of encouragement and praise. "They" say it's not wise to name name's when doling out thanks, but there are some who have given many, many hours of their time, talent and finances to make the Hacker's Creek Journal what it is today.

First and foremost, to Lolita Guthrie, our assistant editor, for her "thousands of trips around the pool table" in the days of yore when the Journal was printed at Bowling Green, for helping gather materials, numbering pages, and inserting "fillers" and all the other things she has done to get one of the finest newsletters anywhere to you, I extend my heartfelt thanks. Lolita is resigning her position with the completion of this Volume. I, for one, will miss her.

Ellie Maroon has indexed the Journal for the past three years. Thanks to her for a job well done.

As most of you have noticed, the Journal has had a "new look" this year - changes in printing, changes to the cover, and better photographs. With the printing now being done in Clarksburg, someone was needed to "run" the Journal from post office to printer to Raydine for mailing and to "work with" the printer. Bob Smith assumed this task, in addition to the many others he has as a member of the Executive Committee. Thanks, Bob, for helping to get our Journal out "on time"

Raydine, our secretary-treasurer, has maintained the mailing list and sends out each and every issue of the current Journal as well as fills all the requests for back issues. She answers our correspondence, assists members with queries, and serves as gracious hostess to many of us when we visit in Lewis County. She attends meetings, gives speeches and does many other things to further our cause. Thanks, Raydine, for the many things you do - and, let's not leave out her husband, Joe Teicheira. Thanks, Joe, for sharing Raydine with us.

Dennis Rodgers, Bill Hayes, Walter Farwell, Bob Smith, and Joyce Chambers devoted considerable hours to writing and researching major articles which were used in the Journal this past year. Thanks, each of you.

"Anonymous Helper" - thanks for the fillers and the query answers. I'm looking forward to more phone conversations and more of your excellent help.

Enough time spent on retrospect - let's look to the future. What's ahead for HCPD and the Hacker's Creek Journal? Another exciting Gathering, our seventh, which looks to be even better than the great ones we've had in the past. Publication of Volume I of YESTERYEAR's - written by Bill Adler, published originally by the "Weston Democrat" and indexed by Betty Hayes. Publication of Volume III of our ancestor charts. A home for our HCPD library and a still unfound location for our Hacker's Creek Pioneer Village. Location of more historic sites in the Hacker's Creek watershed. And. . . and. . . and. . . and finally, let's all work together to make the 1988-89 membership year bigger and better than ever. . . . We'd like to see our membership reach 500 by gathering time next year. I know Raydine wouldn't mind sending out 500 Journals. Would you, Raydine???

See ya' later -

Jay

From the Secretary's desk ----

We're getting "psyched" up for the Gathering! My big thing is making lists, and now that I've reached the point of making lists about my lists we must be approaching G-Day.

Many items will be brought up at the Gathering, and I'll mention a few so those unlucky people who can't join us will know what's going on.

First, Diane Paxton has been busy setting up a set of books. Each of us secretary-treasurers did the best we could, but our notebooks were not professional works by any means. Diane will have a third quarter balance sheet prepared by meeting time, and the year-end balance sheet will be published in the next Journal. She will run a quarterly balance for me, and I must admit that I feel much relieved. It's easier now that I know how.

Second, we've been talking about how to ease the labor of the secretary-treasurer's job. As many of you know by working in other organizations it is very time-consuming. To separate the tasks would require an amendment of the by-laws. Also the two officers would have to be close (in geographical terms!) to be able to handle the unexpected expenses. I've been thinking about the advantage of having a correspondence committee which would meet for a couple of hours each two weeks at my house. We could answer all the letters, look up info and mail our Journals. That would ease my burden.

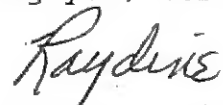

Third, postal costs. We all know how they've risen. I'm going to suggest to the membership that any pubs ordered within six weeks of anticipated Journal publication be held for bulk mailing. You'd be surprised at the amount that needs postage each week. Of course I feel that new members should have mail immediately so they'll know we welcome them.

And that leads me to the last item. We are definitely going to work on preparing a new member packet. That in itself would take a load off my shoulders - would save those letters explaining queries, publications and such.

If you have any suggestions to help us, please put them in Uncle Sam's suggestion box and we'll read and consider each.

For those of you who can be with us in August - we're looking forward to seeing you; for those who can't make it-we'll miss you!

Love, Raydine

VOLUNTEER WANTED

Need Assistant to the Editor for the Hacker's Creek Journal. Must be able to type and have typewriter with ribbon suitable for printing. Requires about 8 hours quarterly. Would prefer someone within 100 miles of Coshocton, OH. For further information, call Joy at 614-622-2614 before 8:30 am or after 8:30 pm or at 614-545-7103 between 10 am and 6 pm.

RE

In reply to questions about our proposed volumes of pictorial history:

1. Yes, copies only. No originals.
2. Any size will do. But, if the original is small, enlargements are preferred -- 4X6, 5X7, even 8X10.
3. Sepia is all right, even though the final printing will probably be in black and white.
4. Daguerreotypes, tintypes, ferrotypes, etc? Certainly, all are desirable.
5. We welcome all photos, whether they were taken in West Virginia or not. The criterion is that they relate to HCPD families, many of whom moved to Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, et.al.
6. Yes, we hope to include some interesting drawings, sketches, maps, etc., as well.

Please send further questions to us through Raydine. And don't forget to identify each item clearly, as requested. Your initial interest is gratifying. Our final product could be very exciting.

YESTERYEARS - Volume I

On Dec 22, 1982, Bill Adler of Weston began writing a column, "Yesteryear's", a collection of newsworthy items from early Lewis County newspapers, for publication in the "Weston Democrat". Bob and Ruth Smith of Lost Creek have clipped each and every column. In 1986, the executive committee photocopied the columns from 1982, 83 and 84; and, in 1987, Betty Mitchell Hayes indexed the 1982 and 83 columns; and, finally, in the spring of '88, Dottie King typed the index. Now, we're ready to publish YESTERYEARS, Volume I, with an every name index.

There's 180 pages, plus the index, in soft cover, packed full of historical and genealogical information of Lewis County, Virginia and West Virginia.

We hope to have it ready for distribution at the Gathering - but, you know what printer's schedules are like.

Order your copy of YESTERYEAR'S, Volume I, by sending $15.00, postage paid, to Yesteryear's, %HCPD, PO Box 37, Jane Lew, WV 26378.

CEMETERY FUND

We're still accepting donations for the upkeep Morrison Cemetery, Smith's Run Cemetery, and the recently discovered Cozad Cemetery. Send donations to Cemetery Fund, %HCPD, PO Box 37, Jane Lew, WV 26378

ANCESTOR BOOK, VOL. III

Missed out on Volume I and II of Ancestor Charts of Early Lewis, Harrison and Upshur County families???? Now's your chance for Volume III.

It takes about a year to gather enough charts, index, type and publish an ancestor chart book. We'd like to have Volume III ready for the 1989 gathering.

Send ancestor charts, with permission to publish (typed and signed on the bottom of each chart) and a separate index card for each and every name on each chart to: Joy Gilchrist, 319 Center St., Coshocton, OH 43812. PLEASE, remember to send the index cards.

BIBLE RECORDS WANTED

Have an old Bible that has a family record? Know someone who does? Does it pertain to a Hacker's Creek area family - even if it's the family after it left W. Va.????

Please submit to HCPD for inclusion in a Journal or possibly in a published book of Bible records. We'd like a photocopy of the original record (where possible) together with a typed or legibly written copy of the record. We also need title page information from the Bible (publisher, date of publication), ownership of the Bible, description, etc. See Bible Records published elsewhere in this Journal for guidelines.

Send Bible Records, together with permission to publish, to Joy Gilchrist, 319 Center St., Coshocton, OH 43812.

1910 DODDRIDGE COUNTY CENSUS

For anyone doing research on Doddridge County families, I still have copies of the 1910 DODDRIDGE COUNTY CENSUS at $12 per copy.

Joint or sinble membership is now one price per the vote at the 1987 Gathering. $20.00 for the year brings you four issues of THE HACKER'S CREEK JOURNAL per year, plus an every name index. You are also entitled to unlimited queries - FREE!!! - free admission to the 1990 Gathering and the right to share in the work, through thought and deed, of preserving the history and genealogy of the Hacker's Creek area.

1988 members will receive the index to Volume VI- BUT YOUR DUES MUST BE PAID NOT LATER THAN OCTOBER 15, 1988, in order to receive the first issue of Volume VII. Don't delay!!! Do it today! Mail dues to Raydine Teicheira, PO Box 37, Jane Lew, WV 26378

ANOTHER STONE AT DOYLE'S CHAPEL CEMETERY

In HCJ Vol. V, Iss. 3, p. 122, Ann Newman and Joy Gilchrist reported on the 'lone tombstone found in Doyle's Chapel Church Cemetery. When Jay Newman read the story, he recalled seeing another stone there. Ann and Jay checked it out and did find the tombstone of "Adalade - wife of W.R. Moneypenny - died 27 July 1870" according to the tombstone; however the Lewis County death records record her death on 27 June 1869.

Adalade was born about 1852 in Rockingham County, VA, daughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Ashenfelter. She married William Richard Moneypenny (2 Apr 1837 - 3 Dec 1898). There were no children from the marriage.

William Richard Moneypenny married second to Anna A. Beall (ca 1848 - 24 Dec 1932), the daughter of John R. Beall and Dorcas Hardman. William was the son of John Moneypenny (1805 - 1887) and Jane Cain (1811 - 1872). John Moneypenny was the son of William Moneypenny (1765 - 1845) and Mary Jane Kenny (1765 - 1865). Jane Cain was the daughter of Cornelius Cain, b 1773) and Margaret Sleeth. Margaret was the daughter of David Wallace Sleeth and Catherine Carpenter.

The Doyle's Chapel Cemetary was in disrepair as early as 1892 when the following "Letter to the Editor" was written to the Weston Republican newspaper about 1892.

Alum Bridge

I had occasion not long since to pass through the farm of William Rinehart, where my eyes caught sight of some old broken and tumble-down tomb stones, and after peering about for a short time I discovered that there had been a considerable graveyard there in former days, and that the silent slumberers had long been fgorgotten. I was struck with surprise. A grave-yard without a fence around it, where hogs and

FROM: WESTON DEMOCRAT OF FRIDAY MARCH 30, 1934

Letter from J. Lorentz Bennett: Items from his Grandmother Bennett's diary

Sarah Jane Rickets born Baltimore, Maryland April 28, 1822, daughter of Nathan and Ruth Rickets. Married William Bennett II in Shepperdstown, Belmont County, Ohio, April 22, 1832. She died at Walkersville May 1, 1902. Sarah Jane Bennett was a sister of Rev. Samuel Clawson's wife, who at one time preached at Weston.

Susan Watson died January 2, 1863

Joseph Watson died January 3, 1863

Sarah Watson died January 8, 1863

Maude Watson died January 27, 1863

Margaret Watson died January 23, 1863

James Watson died January 25, 1863

Virginia Watson died January 29, 1863

These were children of Brightwell Watson who was at a later date shot above "The Forks", later Walkersville, by a bushwacker. All seven children died of diphteria within the month of January.

March 11, 1863 - William Bennett started to Clarksburg to attend his trial for treason which is all lies of the deepest dye.

March 11, 1863 - William Holt died in Winchester, Virginia of fever, being a Union soldier.

April 1, 1863 - Snowing and it looks like the dead of winter; snow 10 to 12 inches deep.

July 15, 1863 - William Anderson departed this life in Grafton. He was a soldier of the 19th Virginia Volunteer Company A.

September 30, 1863 - The soldiers came today and burned our home. They also took 100 head of cattle, 13 head of horses and 50 head of sheep.

November 6, 1863 - Bird Curry killed in the Droop Mountain Battle in Pocahontas County, Virginia.

June 12, 1864, Sunday - The guerrillas came in last night, robbing the neighborhood of horses, cattle, meat, everything they could plunder, alarming the whole neighborhood. Several of the men followed them to get their stolen property, and John S. Anderson was shot by a Union soldier, supposing him to be one of the guerrillas. How unfortunate. Mr. Anderson was a splendid citizen.

August 25, 1864 - Thursday evening Bill Pierson and a man by the name of Calhoun shot Frank Meeks but he is still living on Sunday the 29th.

September 29, 1864 - The rebels came in today and killed our neighbor Brightwell Watson shooting him from ambush in the head, just a ways up the river above The Forks.

April 1, 1865 - William Bennett was killed. He was shot off his horse while drinking in Old Womans run not far from Fiddlers Mill.

The John Hacker Family

by Joy Gilchrist and others

Editor's Note: When we began these articles on the John Hacker family in Volume V, Issue 3, (Spring 1987) it was intended to continue them until the family was complete. However, with several fine articles ready for publication and the failure of you-know-who to get this series written, there has been a nearly 18 month delay between segments. Meanwhile, new data has come to light regarding material in the first installment - particularly about the families of William Hacker, b 1739, and Mary "Polly" (Hacker) Bush. There is not enough material at hand to make additions or corrections for William other than to say that he did marry and lived in Kentucky; it is hoped that researchers for this line will forward information so that it may be included in the next installment. This segment will cover the information at hand on "Polly" which was supplied by several Bush family researchers including Wilma Hill, Lorraine Swisher, Bette Butcher Topp and Raymond Wolfe.

Mary "Polly" Hacker, b ca 1747

Mary "Polly" Hacker was born ca 1747, probably in Stafford Co., VA, where her parents, William and Ann (Turner) (Dillon) Hacker, are believed to have resided. Between 1770 and 1781, perhaps at Bushes Fort, she married Capt. John Bush. John, b ca 1750 probably in Berks Co, PA, was a son of George Adam Busch (Bush) and his wife Susanna.

George Adam Busch, b ca 1720 in Germany, d. 1820 Lewis Co, (W)V, (will was proven Fall Term 1820) married Susanna about 1740 probably in Berks Co, PA. Known children, in addition to John, are: Jacob Bush, veteran of the Battle of Pt. Pleasant, who was wed to Margaret Swan (Snarr) and had ten children (HCJ, V. V, Iss. 1, p. 19); Adam Bush who d. before 1811; and Michael Bush, b ca 1753/4 probably in PA, and married to Catherine _____.

Michael was killed in the Battle of Pt. Pleasant where he served in Capt. Ralph Stewart's company. His name, along with many others from the Hacker's Creek area, is listed on a roster in the HCPD Library files which was found by Dennis Rodgers and Ed Schoolcraft in Richmond, VA, two years ago.

According to Wilma Hill, Michael and Catherine were the parents of three children: Catherine, b ca 1772 prob. in Hardy Co, m. George Richards; Sarah, b ca 1773 Monongalia (Harrison) Co, (W)V, d 26 Mar 1855 in Goshen, Elkhart Co, IN, m John Carpenter (1772/Maryland - 25 Mar 1855/Goshen, IN), son of Nicholas and Mary (Wolfe) Carpenter; and George, b 1774 Monongalia (Lewis) Co, (W)V, d March/April 1834 (Estate Sale Bill HCJ V-4, p. 189), who m. Mary Woolfe (10 Jul 1782/Harrison Co, - 9 Jan 1831). In Minute Book I, Harrison County, WV, p. 482, dated 18 Aug 1790, John Heagle, Guardian of Sarah Bush and George Bush, apt. and gave the court full satisfaction that he had not any of the Estate of the said Sarah and George in his hands.

Children born to John and Sarah (Bush) Carpenter were: David B.; Elias; Nicholas L. (12 Sep 1803/Harrison Co, Va - 1872/Green Twp, Marshall Co, IN) m. Elizabeth Jackson 7 June 1829 in Lewis Co, VA; John, Catherine, Mary, Elizabeth, Amy and Sarah.

John Bush was one of the earliest settlers at Buckhannon; he arrived about 1773. In 1781 he received a certificate for 200 acres on the Buckhannon River to include his improvement made in 1773. Bushes Fort/"Buchannon Fort"/"Fort at Buchannon", erected above what is now Heavener Cemetery, was on his property and was built in 1774. In later years the property was owned by J.W. Heavner who hauled over 150 wagon loads of stone from the site. Further information on the fort will be found in HCJ Vol. V, Iss. 1, pp 15-17.

The Bushes remained at the Buckhannon settlement until 1782 when the settlement broke up during Indian uprisings. Wither's CHRONICLES OF BORDER WARFARE says of John Bush.

"While some of the inhabitants of that settlement were engaged in moving their property to a fort in Tygart's Valley (the others removing to Nutter's Fort and Clarksburg), they were fired upon by a party of savages, and two of them, Michael Hagle and Elias Paynter, fell. The horse on which John Bush was riding was shot through; yet Bush succeeded in extricating himself from the falling animal, and escaped though closely pursued by one of the savages. Several times the Indian following him, would cry out to him, 'Stop, and you shall not be hurt—if you do not, I will shoot you,' and once Bush, nearly exhausted, and in despair of getting off, actually relaxed his pace for the purpose of yielding himself a prisoner. when turning round he saw the savage stop also, and commence loading his gun. This inspired Bush with fear for the consequences, and renewing his flight he made his escape. Edward Tanner, a mere youth was soon taken prisoner, and as he was being carried to their towns, met between twenty and thirty savages, headed by Timothy Dorman, proceeding to attack Buckhannon Fort. Learning from him that the inhabitants were moving from it, and that it would be abandoned in a few days, the Indians pursued their journey with so much haste, that Dorman had well nigh failed from fatigue. They arrived however, too late, for the accomplishment of their bloody purpose; the settlement was deserted, and the inhabitants safe within the walls of other fortresses." (9)

When the families began to re-occupy the area at the end of the uprisings, John and Polly apparently moved to Freeman's Creek where their son William was born on the last day of 1784. On 24 Apr 1791 John, together with two of his children, were attacked by the Indians. Of the occurrence, Wither's says:

"On the 24th of April, John Bush (living on Freeman's Creek), having very early sent two of his children to drive up the cattle, became alarmed by their screams, and taking down his gun, was proceeding to learn the cause of it, when he was met at the door by an Indian, who caught hold of the gun, forced it from his grasp, and shot him with it. Bush fell across the threshold, and the savage drew his knife to scalp him. Mrs. Bush ran to the assistance of her husband, and with an axe, aimed a blow at the Indian with such force that it fastened itself in his shoulder, and when he jumped back his exertion pulled the handle from her hand. She then drew her husband into the house and secured the door.

"In this time other of the savages had come up, and after endeavoring in vain to force open the door, they commenced shooting through it. Fortunately Mrs. Bush remained unhurt, although eleven bullets passed through her frock and some of them just grazing the skin. One of the savages observing an aperture between the logs thrust the muzzle of his gun thro' it. With another axe Mrs. Bush struck on the barrel so as to make it ring, and the savage on drawing it back, exclaimed 'Dern you.' Still they were endeavoring to force an entrance into the house, until they heard what they believed to be a party of whites coming to its relief. It was Adam Bush, who living close by and hearing the screams of the children and the firing of the gun, had set off to learn what had given rise to them, and taking with him his dogs, the noise made by them in crossing the creek alarmed the savages, and caused them to retreat, taking off the two children as prisoners. A company of men were soon collected and went in pursuit of the Indians; but were unable to surprise them and regain the prisoners. They, however, came so nearly upon them, on the Little Kenhawa, that they were forced to fly precipitately, leaving the plunder and seven horses which they had taken from the settlement; these were retaken and brought back." (10)

Until recently, researchers have been unable to agree whether the John Bush referred to in the incident is John Bush of the Buckhanannon settlement or another John Bush entirely. Nor can they agree whether John died immediately of his wounds or survived for some years before succumbing to the effects of them. Cutright claims he "met his death at the vile hands of the Indians". McWhorter says "the wound healed, but broke out several years afterwards and finally resulted in his death." However, the HISTORY OF VERMILION COUNTY, ILL (1889), in a sketch on John Bush, son of John's son, William, has this to say of the incident.

John Bush, the grandfather of John Bush of Rossville, lived on Freeman's Creek, in West Virginia. Early on the morning of the 24th of April, 1791, he sent his two eldest children, Daniel and Ann, to drive up the cows. Immediately on their departure his house was suddenly assailed by an attacking party of Indians. The screams of children and the shouts of the savages suddenly brought Mr. Bush to his feet, and grasping his rifle, he opened the door. The weapon was instantly seized by a redskin standing at the threshold, and wrested from him. His foe shot him through the body with it, and as he dropped to the floor his wife sprang out of bed to his assistance. The Indian, while endeavoring to drag his body out, was dispatched by Mrs. Bush with an axe. Others also attempted to remove him, and she likewise disposed of five in succession. She wounded the sixth, and lost her weapon by its becoming fast in his ribs, and not being able to disengage it, she then barred the door, and the neighborhood having become aroused by the firing and yelling, the discomfited assailants fled precipitately, leaving the resolute woman "holding the fort," with her five or six children. The two children were carried into captivity, but after about two years were recovered. The boy died soon after his release, from the effects of the severities he had undergone. Mr. Bush was in a fair way of recovery, when, in a paroxysm of laughter, he ruptured a blood-vessel in his wound and died. This incident is related, though differing somewhat in its details, in an old book entitled "Chronicles of Border Warfare," a history of the settlement of north-western Virginia.

A Meigs County, OH, history, in a sketch on Polly's granddaughter, Mary J. (Bush) Rose, says that "Mary Bush, grandmother of Mrs. Rose, killed three Indians after they had killed her husband, John Bush and carried away her two children into captivity. One Indian was killed with an ax, one with a stick and wood, and another was smothered by burning her feather bed as he was coming down the chimney of her cabin. Her boy and girl were many years captive.

It is certain that John Bush predeceased Polly who died in 1801/02. At that time, William (aged 17), James (aged 15), Jacob (aged 12), and the Marah and Elizabeth were bound out and John Hacker served as the administrator for the estate and filed an appraisement bill between 30 Jan 1802 and 19 Oct 1802 (Harrison Co. Will Book 1). A sale of her chattels was held at a later date with many early pioneers purchasing everything from a tin cup ("James Keathe") to a "heffer" (Arthur Hathaway). Copies of the appraisement and the sale are on the pages immediately following this segment. Had John Bush been living at the time of these occurrences, the children would not have been bound out nor would John Hacker have served in this capacity.

John and Polly were the parents of at least eight children. All were born in what was then called Harrison Co., VA. Not necessarily in order of birth, they are believed to have been: Susannah, Daniel, Ann, William, James, Elizabeth, Jacob and Marah (Margaret).

1. Susannah Bush was born ca 1774 and was probably the eldest daughter since she was named for her paternal grandmother as was the custom among the pioneers; however, the Vermilion, IL, history indicates that Ann, not Susannah, was the eldest. Susannah m. Abraham/Abram Cutright on 23 Sep 1793 with Rev. Loufbourow officiating. Abraham, b 1765-1775, was a son of Benjamin and Catherine Woolfe/Wolf/Wolfe Cutright.

Ten children were born to Abraham and Susannah: Elizabeth (10 Jun 1796/Harrison Co - 23 Mar 1853) m. William Cutright 6 Jan 1819; Sarah (1797 - 1880/bur. Mt. Gilead Cemetery) m 1 Aug 1818 Philip M. Linger; Cassie Ann (ca 1803 - 25 Feb 1874) m 21 Nov 1821 in Lewis Co Isaac Cutright; Rachel (1805 - Jun 1885) m 17 Feb 1828 in Lewis Co Andrew Casto; Lydia (1806 - ca 1844) m 7 Oct 1816 in Lewis Co George Westfall; Enoch (1808 - 2 Apr 1889/bur. Hinkleyville Cemetery) m 28 Feb 1828 Catherine Warner; Dorcas, b. 1810, m 25 Jul 1830 Isaac Casto; Lot (20 Apr 1812 - 2 Jun 1881/bur. Hampton Cemetery) m 1839 Isabella Cutright; Asel/Ashael, b 1814, m Mahelia Clark; and Isaac or Alpha m. 1836 in Barbour Co Easter Casto.

2. Ann Bush was probably the second eldest daughter and was named for her maternal grandmother. Anna Bush is recorded as marrying Henry Davis in Harrison County on 13 Jan 1817 with George Bush as witness. Ann, according to the Vermilion, IL, history, was carried into Indian captivity in 1791 and remained for about two years before her return.

3. Daniel Bush was the eldest son. Captured by the Indians and held for two years, he died shortly after his release in 1793.

4. William Bush, born 31 Dec 1784 on Freeman's Creek, was 17 years old when his mother died in 1801. He married (1) Mary (McCauley) Shoulders (1784 - 1820/23), daughter of James and Elizabeth Catherine (Wilson) McCauley, on 14 Nov 1806 in Harrison County. Four years later, on 2 Nov 1810, a son John was born. The following year, 1811, William and Mary moved to Gallia County, OH, and in 1816 to Warren County, OH. Six children were born to William and Mary before her death in Warren County. William married (2) Mary Wallace (1803 - Aug 1847) on 16 Mar 1823 in Warren County. Seven children were born of this marriage. After the death of the second wife, William moved to Piatt County, IL. William died at Monticello, Piatt Co., IL, 28 Jan 1857. The thirteen children were: John (1810-1880) m. Jane Wallace; Mary, b 1813; Susan, b 1814; William Jr., b 1816, m. Clarissa

; Abigail, b 1818, m. Samuel Agner (Eagy) in 1836; Paulson, b 1820/1823, d 1895, m. Elizabeth Buchanan; Jesse, b 1824, m. Catherine J. Neal; Jacob (1827-1895) m. Annie W. Hollingsworth; Oliver P., b 1829, m. Barbara Jane Clark in 1851; Martha, b 1831, m. Absalom Buchanan; Margaret, b 1833; George, b 1834; and Daniel (1839-1867) m. Margaret Neal.

5. James Bush, b. 1786. No further information.

6. Elizabeth Bush, b 1788, m. James Wolf on 6 Apr 1808.

7. Jacob Bush (15 Feb 1787 - 4 Oct 1855) married Elizabeth Flesher (20 Oct 1801 - 11 Jun 1877). Jacob and Elizabeth moved to Meigs County, OH in 1817 where seven known children were born to them: Mary J., Martin, Wesley, Ezra, Jesse, William H. and Charles.

According to an article submitted through Raymond Wolfe from Garnett C. Yates of Norfolk, VA., a report on Mary J. in a Meigs County, OH, history gives Jacob's and Elizabeth's birth and death dates as well as the aforementioned story on Mary "Polly" Bush. Mary J. Bush, b 16 Feb 1826/Meigs Co, OH, married Enos Rose, son of John Rose and Eda Boyce on 11 Jun 1843 and had ten children: Matthias A., b 30 Mar 1844; Henry V., b 29 Oct 1845; Rebecca V, b 23 Oct 1847, m. an Offut; Minerva J., b. 14 May 1850; Winna E., b 1 Apr 1854, m. a McBride; Martha L., b 20 Oct 1856; George M., b 5 May 1860; Sarah E., b 18 Dec 1862, m. a Cain; Ella m., b 25 Jun 1865; and Cora A., b 29 Oct 1869.

Martin V., Wesley, Ezra, Jesse and William all served in the Union Army during the Civil War. Jesse was wounded several times but recovered. William, who was commissioned a captain shortly before his death, was killed 2 Apr 1865 in front of Ft. Gregg at the battle of Petersburg, VA. Charles Bush went to California in 1853 and became wealthy.

8. Marsh (Margaret) Bush, b Jun 1791, married 17 Oct 1815 Peter McCune Jr. with George Davisson as her guardian.

A Pioneer Account Book
by Raydine Teicheira

It's a small notebook that measures only four by seven inches. It's rough paper has darkened with the years, and it's sewn with coarse thread. There's no cover, but the front page is adorned with homilies such as "Delight and some care will make you write fair" and "A true friend is the greatest contentment", and the whole page is covered with someone's penmanship practice.

The back page has a statement "I promise to pay or cause to be paid unto Christian Straley on his order the just and full sum of twenty dollars on demand for value received of him as witness my hand and seal this tenth day of february"- and the rest is covered with "doodles" of creatures who look like my idea of Martians.

We'll never know who owed that sum to my great-great-grandfather Christian, but the fact that the little book survived the years is miracle enough for me. It covers the years from 1800 through the years that Christian and his son Joseph conducted family business, ending with the mid-1860's. There is no chronological order to the entries; a date of 1856 appears on the same page as one dated 1807, so this also proves that paper was precious and used carefully.

The importance of this account book to HCPD members lies in the fact that many of the names contained in it are those of early pioneers whose families we are researching. Some day - when time permits - I will copy all of it that is legible and we'll place it in the library so all can have access to it. I've chosen some of the pages at random to give a glimpse of business transactions of the days when settlers were few and had to depend on each other for money and provisions.

A GUIDE TO THE COUNTIES OF VIRGINIA

Harrison County
West Virginia

The Virginia Genealogist, V. 14, No. 1, Jan. Mar. 1970
Submitted by Ruth S. Strother

Harrison County was formed in 1784 from the southern portion of Monongalia County. At that time it was bounded by Monongalia County on the north, Ohio County on the northwest, Greenbrier County of the south and southwest and Hampshire County on the east. It included all of Randolph, Tucker, Lewis, Upshur, Barbour, Ritchie and Wood and parts of Marion, Taylor, Pocahontas, Gilmer, Webster, Braxton, Calhoun, Wirt and Doddridge counties.

Randolph County was formed from the southeastern part of Harrison County in 1786 and Wood county was formed from its western area in 1798. A portion of southwest Monongalia County was added to Harrison in 1799 and in 1801 the part of Randolph County called Buchannon Settlement was returned to Harrison County. In 1804 a portion of southeastern Ohio County was added to Harrison. Lewis County was formed from the southern part of Harrison in 1816. In 1842 Marion County was formed from Monongalia and Harrison Counties and in 1843 the western part of Harrison County was cut off to form part of Ritchie County and the eastern portion was cut off to form part of Barbour County. In 1844 a part of Harrison County was cut off to form part of Taylor County and in 1845 the western portion of the county was cut off to form part of Doddridge County. At this time Harrison County attained its present boundaries, although in 1863 several farms were transferred from Harrison to Taylor County and in 1871 the line between Barbour and Harrison counties was altered.

Historical information about the county appears in Henry Haymond, History of Harrison County, West Virginia (Morgantown, W. Va., 1910) and in Fardesty's Historical and Geographical Encyclopedia (Harrison and Marion Counties) ed., Chicago 1883).

COURT RECORDS (at the County Court House at Clarksburg): Deeds are complete from 1786 and there are grantor and grantee indexes in many volumes for 1786-1923 and 1924-date. Trust deeds begin in 1862 and there are general indexes.

Wills are complete from 1788 and there are general indexes 1788-1945 and 1945-date. Wills 1784-1821 are abstracted in "West Virginia Wills" (typewritten; n.p., 1936), v. 2, pp. 1-98. The series of inventories, sale bills and settlements begins in 1841 and there is a general index.

Minute books are preserved from 1784. After 1829 they are usually designated Order books. There are three volumes of Road Orders, 1843-59.

There are seven volumes of Marriage Bonds, 1784-1850, and a series of Marriage Records, 1784-date. There are indexes of marriages, 1784-1912, for males and females, and 1913-39, etc. Marriages are abstracted in "Harrison County, Virginia (West Virginia) Marriage Records, 1784-1850 (typewritten: n.p., 1950), "Harrison County, West Virginia, Marriages" (4 v.; typewritten; Clarksburg, 1936), and 1785-1817 in W.B. Cutright, The History of Upshur County, West Virginia (n.p., 1907, pp. 283-85).

There are registers of births, 1853-date. A general index covers 1853-1933 and thereafter the volumes are indexed individually. The registers of Deaths, 1853-date, are similarly indexed.

Entries, 1784-1853, are in five volumes. There are seven volumes of Surveys with a general index. There is a General Index to Maps and Plats. Army Service Discharge Records, beginning in 1943, comprise many volumes. There is an Index of Discharges of All Wars.

CHURCH RECORDS: Seventh Day Baptists. Records of New Salem Church appear in Corliss Fitz Randolph, History of Seventh Day Baptists in West Virginia, pp. 83-133.

TAX LISTS: The Virginia State Library has personal property tax books of Harrison County for 1786-1860. There are two books for each year 1800-60. Tithable lists 1784-1824 and other land and personal property tax books are at the County Court House.

CENSUS RECORDS: 1810 census, a single list.
1820 census, an alphabetical list with unarranged additions at end of list.
1830 census, alphabetical lists for Eastern District, Clarksburg and Western District.
1840 census, a single list.
1850 census, a single list. This has been published: W. Guy Tetrick, Census Returns of Harrison County (West) Virginia for 1850 (Clarksburg, 1930).

Jacob Reger's Bible

This old Lutheran Bible, published in MDCCIII (1753) and containing APOCAL, has no regular Family Record, but scattered through it, are to be found, some entries.

This Bible is the same which was carried across the sea, and across the wilderness, in 1776, by Jacob and Barbary (Crites) Reager, and their family, when they came to their new home, in what was then or just shortly before part of West Augusta county, which was in Oct. 1776, a part of Mongalia County, in 1784, a part of Harrison, Randolph in 1786, Lewis in 1816, Barbour in 1843, and Upshur in 1851.

One Entry is "Jacob Reager was born in the year of our Lord 1700."

Another is "Abraham Reger was born in the year of our Lord ----."

The Bible has been handed down from (1) Jacob and Barbary (Crites) Reager, as follows: to (2) their son John, who married Elizabeth West; (3) to their daughter, Barbary Reger, who married James Teter in 1820, 2nd hasband, Peter Zinn. James Teter and Barbary (Reger) had a son (4) Jacob, who married Catherine Loudin. Jacob and Catherine (Loudin) Teter had a son (5) Irvin, who married Kate White.

Barbary (Reger) Teter gave the Bible to her grandson (5) Irvin Teter. Irvin Teter and his wife Kate (White) gave the Bible to their son (6) Ralph who married _____ Hinkel. Their son, (7) Benjamin, is to have the Bible. The entries are very faded. One shows that Jacob Reager was born in the year of our Lord 1700.

Though the Bible is in Upshur County (1938), at the home of Mr. Ralph Teter, they receive their mail at Volga, Barbour Co., Rt. 1.

It is 12 x 16 x 5 and weighs 12 lbs. Is wooden (looks like oak) covered, and that is covered with leather. Corners have been protected by brass plates (though only one is left) and has had brass clasps. Has illustrations by Isnard. Tower of Babel, Molten Calf, Pillar of Fire, etc.

Holy Bible (King James' Version)

This interesting Bible, is in the home of Ralph Teter, of Volga, Barbour County, Rt. 1, post office but the home is in Upshur. It was printed in 1799, in Worchester, Mass. (by Isaih Thomas) in the United States of Columbia. It was sold by him, in Worchster, Mass, by Wholesale and Bound or in Sheets. Sold also, by Said Thomas and Andrews in Boston, Mass., and by booksellers in the United States of Columbia.

The Bible belonged to William Paugh.

According to the record in Bible (on paper) he was born on April 30, 1793.

William Paugh married Mary Loudin (who was born in Harrison County, Oct. 10, 1798).

November 10, 1827. (date of marriage)

This is on paper and is very dim.

Walter Loudin was born on the 17th of August "17095".

Robert Romine was born in the -ear of our Lord, 1795, Dec. 20.

This Bible is 6x5x3 and is leather covered.

It has come down from William and Mary (Loudin) Paugh to their daughter Mary Ann Paugh, who married Henry Wesley White; to their daughter, Kay White, who married Irvin Teter; to their son Ralph Teter, who married _____ Henkel, and who are keeping it for their son Benjamine Teter, who is now in college. This makes the fifth generation.

Copied by Beatrice Arnold Giffin, June 20, 1938.

I am trying to find out just how this came to be published in the United States of Columbia. It was the year after the Hopkinson wrote "Hail Columbia". Have been unable to find anything concerning it. B.A.G.

cattle have been kept since I first knew the farm, 8 years ago, and to-day seems to be the only suitable place to fodder the cattle, judging by the waste feed strewn upon the graves of the dead. I wondered if these departed ones had or ever did have any friends or relatives in this country; after examining a few of the old broken head-stones I found that some of them had near relatives such as fathers, sons and daughters now living in and near this neighborhood. But who those parties are I shall not mention. But I shall request of those parties to have more respect for their dead; it would cost but little to fence and otherwise improve this burial ground. Labor and lumber are both cheap, and I have heard uninterested parties say they would help to fence and clean the trash from same. I will pay for the lumber to fence it if the parties who have friends buried there will not. Now neighbors, let us see to this at once. We certainly can do this much for humanity's sake, respect for the dead and our neighborhood. If we were to see such a state of affairs in a neighboring county we would say that community was inhabited by heathens. Let not such be said of us.

Success to the Republican and respect for the dead.

1. HUGHES
LOFTISS
HOLDEN

Seek any information on family of my Great Grandfather John Lucas Hughes, b. 3 June 1822 Virginia, d. 11 April 1908, Eldon, Iowa. One of a large family, left home at 12 or 13 years of age (1834-35) due to the dislike of a step-parent. Declared on 1900 Iowa Census that his parents were both born in Virginia. Told family that Hughes River in Virginia was named for some one of his ancestral relatives. m. Martha Ann Loftiss 9 Mar 1843, St. Clair Twp., Butler Co., Ohio, 14 Nov 1844. Moved to Eldon, Iowa, along with in-laws Gideon and Martha Davis Holden Loftiss in 1846-47. Glenn D. Hughes, 307 9th St. Box 189, Eldon, IA 52554.
